

Mixed Sidecar Semantic Table

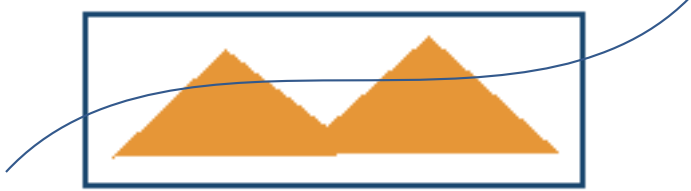

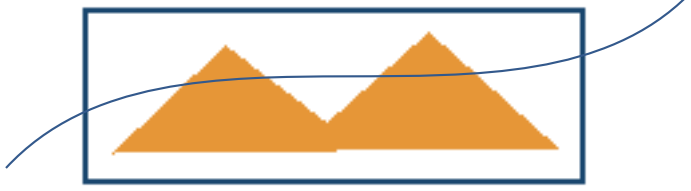

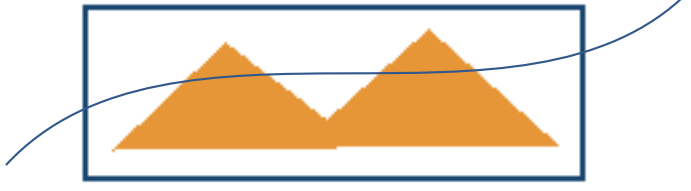

Basin type	Process type	Location diagram
Outer fan	Confined flow	Analogue North  A diagram showing two orange triangular landforms within a blue rectangular frame. A blue curved line representing a flow path enters from the left, passes between the two triangles, and exits to the right.
Inner fan	Bypass flow	Analogue East  A diagram showing two orange triangular landforms within a blue rectangular frame. A blue curved line representing a flow path enters from the left, passes between the two triangles, and exits to the right.
Channel belt	Ponded flow	Analogue South  A diagram showing two orange triangular landforms within a blue rectangular frame. A blue curved line representing a flow path enters from the left, passes between the two triangles, and exits to the right.
Basin floor	Lobe flow	Analogue West  A diagram showing two orange triangular landforms within a blue rectangular frame. A blue curved line representing a flow path enters from the left, passes between the two triangles, and exits to the right.

Figure 22. Generated sidecar image and text components